

Indian Music Trail

Indian Music Trail is a series of afternoon and evening performances that will showcase some of the finest genres, instruments, musicians and music from the Asian sub-continent to the northeast of UK.

The evening performance will also feature some of the talented voices in the NorthEast nurtured by Dr. Vijay Rajput, an artist, teacher and an exponent in Indian classical music.

Indian Music Trail is developed along with Leisureworks and a CETL (Centre for Excellence in Teaching and Learning), which is a collaborative initiative of the 6 universities in the North East led by Newcastle University along with The Sage Gateshead).

The next showcase in the trail is by Simon Kohli on Sarod accompanied by Tapan Roy on Tabla.
